JULY'S VALUE	WINNING HOUSE	BEST ATTENDANCE	STAR OF THE WEEK
KINDNESS	To Follow	Goldfinch Class	Jensen B

Dear Parents,

Headlines comes to you a day early due to the whole school beach trip tomorrow. If you are travelling with us by coach to the beach please arrive at school in plenty of time as the coaches will be leaving promptly at 9.00am (we cannot wait for late arrivals). Parents who are taking their own children do not need to come to school first - we will meet you at the beach at 10.00am. If you are taking your own child/ren please remember to bring any medication they may need e.g. inhalers. Children do not need to wear school uniform, they can wear their own clothes. Following concerns about sewage pollution at Worthing beach, we have contacted the local council this morning who have assured us that they check the water quality daily and as of today there is no water quality warning issued. The forecast is looking good for tomorrow so fingers crossed the sun comes out for our day at the beach!

Thank yous and goodbyes!

A massive thank you to Lucinda and the amazing Friends Team who have worked tirelessly throughout the year fundraising for our lovely school. Over the last two years they have raised an amazing £20,000! The committee are stepping down at the AGM on 27th September and need to find some lovely people to take over. If anyone would like any more information about the roles and what's involved please speak to a member of the committee.

We have a few goodbyes we would like to say, firstly to Mrs Smart, who has left us to take on a full time headship, where we wish her the best of luck! Also Mr Van, Mrs Deloford and Miss Sidery, who we wish good luck at their new schools, Miss Lawton who we hope enjoys her time in Venice, and Dan Cliff (After School Club) who we wish the best of luck in his studies. You will all be greatly missed, and we are so grateful for the individual contributions you have each made to our lovely school. Thank you!

This week at Powell...
